so long ago I don't remember when, that's when they said I lost my only friend
C G B7 Em
well they said she died easy of a broken heart disease as I listened through the cemetery trees
C G B7 Em
I seen the sun comin' up at the funeral at dawn with the long broken arm of human law
C G B7 Em
now it always seemed such a waste, she always had a pretty face, I wondered how she hung around this place hey-ey-ey, come on try a little, nothing is forever, got to be something better than in the middle me and Cinderella, we put it all together, we can drive it home with one headlight

she said it's cold, it feels like Independence Day & I can't break away from this parade
but there's got to be an opening somewhere here in front of me through this maze of ugliness & greed
I've seen the sign up ahead at the county line bridge sayin' all is good & nothingness is dead
we run until she's out of breath, she ran until there's nothing left, she hit the end, it's just her window ledge

this place is old, it feels just like a beat up truck, I turn the engine but the engine doesn't turn
smells of cheap wine, cigarettes, this place is always such a mess, sometimes I think I'd like to watch it burn
C G B7 Em
I'm so alone, feel just like somebody else, man I ain't changed, but I know I ain't the same
C G B7 Em
but somewhere here in between the city walls of dyin' dreams I think her death it must be killing me
