

FOX

the fox went out on a chilly night, prayed for the moon to give him light for he'd many a mile to go that night before he reached the town-o, town-o, town-o many a mile to go that night before he reached the town-o he ran til he came to the farmer's pen, the ducks and the geese were kept therein he said a coupl-a you are gonna grease my chin before I leave this town-o, town-o, town-o couple-a you are gonna grease my chin before I leave this town-o he grabbed the great goose by the neck, and he threw a duck across his back and he didn't mind the quack, quack, and the legs all danglin' down-o, down-o, down-o he didn't mind the quack, quack, and the legs all danglin' down-o the old grey woman jumped outta bed, outta the window she popped her head cryin' John, John, the great goose is gone and the fox is on the town-o, town-o, town-o John, John, the great goose is gone and the fox is on the town-o he ran til he came to his nice warm den and there were the little ones eight, nine, ten sayin' Daddy, Daddy, better go back again for it must be a mighty fine town-o, town-o, town-o Daddy, Daddy, go back again, for it must be a mighty fine town-o the fox and his wife, without any strife, cut up the goose with a fork and a knife and they never had such a supper in their life and the little ones chewed on the bones-o,
