

WHITE WINTER HYMNAL

D
I was following the pack
all swallowed in their coats with scarves of red tied 'round their throats Em
to keep their little heads from falling in the snow and I turned 'round and there you go G
and Michael you would fall and turn the white snow A red as strawberries in the summertime D