

I WISH IT WOULD RAIN

oh I wish it would rain and wash my face clean

I want to find some dark cloud to hide in here

oh love and a memory sparkle like diamonds

when the diamonds fall they burn like tears

when the diamonds fall they burn like tears

once I had a love from the Georgia pines who only cared for me

I wanna find that love of twenty-two here at thirty-three

I've got a heart on my right and one on my left but neither suits my needs no the one I love lives way out west and he never will need me

I'm gonna pack up my two steppin shoes and head for the Gulf Coast plain

I wanna walk the streets of my own hometown where everybody knows my name

I wanna ride the waves down to Galveston when the hurricanes blow in

'cause that Gulf Coast water tastes sweet as wine when your heart's rollin' home in the wind
